ATLANTA – May 19, 2011 – Commissioner Tim Echols with the Georgia Public Service Commission will host a High Energy Leadership Program (H.E.L.P.) for an East Coweta High School Physics Class on Friday, May 20, 2011 at the Commission offices in Atlanta. The curriculum is designed to introduce students into the world of energy, including natural gas, nuclear, electric and solar. The class will have completed the basic curriculum prior to attending the day's session.

Students will spend the day at the Public Service Commission and hear presentations by state leaders, professors, industry executives and others. Students will also play a game of Energy Jeopardy and have some other fun activities.

The session kicks off at 10:15 a.m. and will end at approximately 3:30 p.m. with an hour for lunch.

Commissioner Echols plans to host the program for a group of Columbus-Muscogee students in the fall of 2011.

Commissioner Echols is the newest member of the Georgia Public Service Commission, having been elected statewide to a six-year term in November, 2010. His complete biography is at <http://tiny.cc/y5ktq>. The Commission web site is www.psc.state.ga.us.
